

CURRICULUM VITAE

Radmila Vulić Bojović

- clinical psychologist and systemic psychotherapist, supervisor and trainer
- born in 1967 in Belgrade, Serbia
- graduated in 1992 from the Faculty for Philosophy, Chair for Psychology, University of Belgrade
- from 1993 to 1996 trained at ViIST in Marburg, Germany in Reflexive Systemic Therapy (introductory and intermediate level)
- holder of Advanced Diploma in Systemic Psychotherapy for Families, Couples and Individuals (4-year programme of Institute for Family Therapy, London, 2006) and Certificate in Systemic Supervision (Marlborough Family Service, London, 2013).
- employed in City Center for Social Work in Belgrade since 1992 (volunteer in Marriage and Family Therapy Counselling Service) and full time since 2006 (holding a position of qualified systemic therapist and supervisor in Child Protection Service in municipality of Cukarica, specialized in working with minority groups and cases of family violence)
- since 2007 active as trainer and supervisor in various family therapy training programmes (Association For Systemic Therapists, EFTA and EAP accredited training institute)
- member of NFTO of Serbia, active participant in EFTA NFTO Meeting in Prato 2013. as the representative of NFTO in Serbia, and since then in Heidelberg (2014), Leuven (2015) and Riga (2016)
- participant at EFTA –TIC Meetings in Toulouse (2008), Krakow (2009) and Brussels (2011), EFTA Congress in Paris (2010), Istanbul (2013), Athens (2016) and EAP Congress in Valencia (2012)
- participant at various systemic therapy workshops organised by AST in Belgrade, often in a role as translator (Jim Wilson, Mony Elkaim, Arlene Vetere, Anette Kreuz Smolinski, Ivan Aisler, Kyriaki Polichroni)
- fluent in English, German and French
- married, mother of two daughters.